CHRISTIAN MATURITY TOPIC OF LECTURE AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, September 30, 1981 -- "Christian Maturity - Our Ecumenical Responsibility," will be the topic of a lecture at the University of Dayton on October 14 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Kennedy Union 310. The lecture will be led by Miriam R. Murphy, S.N.D., Ph.D., and will focus on the need for a united effort to nurture and foster mature Christian leadership. The fee for the lecture is $3.

Sr. Murphy is a seminar leader at the Center of Continuing Education, Princeton Theological Seminary and author of Prayer in Action, A Growth Experience. She has led workshops to teach church leaders how to instruct, nurture and foster a deeper spiritual life among their church members, covering such topics as scriptural meditation, contemplation, the Jesus prayer, prayer for inner healings, charismatic prayer and creative approaches to decision-making with prayer.

A workshop, "Today's Spiritual Hunger, A Christian Challenge," will also be given by Sr. Murphy on October 15 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in Kennedy Union 311. The fee for the workshop is $10. The workshop will attempt to develop a better understanding of the recent thrust in spiritual hunger, including the new interest in Eastern religions, selfish psychologies, and cults.

For more information on the lecture or the workshop, call the University of Dayton Office for Moral and Religious Education, 229-4327.
